We are a well-established English tutoring business dedicated solely to one-to-one tutoring of writing, reading, vocabulary, and grammar. We are seeking an English tutor with experience teaching both composition and English and American literature. You must have a BA. or higher degree in English; no resumes with other majors will be considered.

You must have good teaching instincts, significant knowledge of literature published before 1930, and the desire to teach these texts to students of all ages. All our tutors must demonstrate mastery of traditional English grammar.

This is a small-business environment: employees help run the company. We are looking for candidates with the work ethic, energy, and enthusiasm to share in the rewards of working together in a recession-proof industry with abundant and growing demand.

The job is part-time leading to full time during the first year of employment.

We pay $16/hour with $2/hour merit raises each month, topping off at $26/hour. Home tutoring rates begin at $20/hr and rise with merit raises to $30 / hr. After twelve months, you will be eligible for a further salary review, profit-sharing bonuses and a possible equity position with our growing company. After twelve months, you'll also begin to receive health benefits.

Why work for us instead of another company? Consider:

-You will work for excellent writers and dedicated teachers

- You will use a solid yet flexible curriculum; no worrying about what to cover next, with the flexibility to teach to the students' needs.
- You can work as many hours as you wish (companies that use contractors often limit their hours.)
- You will teach great literature; our business focuses on reading and writing skills, not test prep.
- Most of our clients have been with us for many years; you can watch your students grow and develop over time.
- You will master English grammar; doing so will give you a huge advantage in all future teaching jobs.

To see if you would fit in, please visit our web site and download our book, Write It Right With Strunk and White.

- Compensation: $16/hour to start; $30/hour after one year. Group lessons $30-$50/hour
- This is a part-time job.
- Principals only. Recruiters, please don't contact this job poster.
- Please, no phone calls about this job!
- Please do not contact job poster about other services, products or commercial interests.
